

WHEREAS, mental health is essential to everyone's overall health and well-being; and

WHEREAS, all Americans experience times of difficulty and stress in their lives; and

WHEREAS, promotion and prevention are effective ways to reduce the burden of mental health conditions; and

WHEREAS, there is a strong body of research that support user-friendly tools that all Americans can access to better handle challenges, and protect their health and well-being; and

WHEREAS, mental health conditions are real and prevalent in our nation; and

WHEREAS, with effective treatment, those individuals with mental health conditions can recover and lead full, productive lives; and

WHEREAS, each business, school, government agency, faith-based organization, health care provider, veteran's groups and citizen has a responsibility to promote mental wellness and support prevention efforts; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic has had profound impacts on the mental health of people of all ages and now more than ever it is critical to reduce the stigma around mental health struggles that commonly prevents individuals from seeking help. By limiting media consumption, staying connected with loved ones and staying active we can maintain our mental health as we try to protect our physical health; and

WHEREAS, the Linn County Mental Health Advisory Board is emphasizing that there is no health without mental health by being involved with Public Service Announcements, Health Fairs, public speakers and various trainings regarding mental health issues;

THEREFORE, I Mayor Robert Duncan do hereby proclaim May 2021 as Mental Health Month in Harrisburg. As the Mayor of Harrisburg, I also call upon the citizens, governmental agencies, public and private institutions, businesses and schools in Harrisburg to recommit our community to increasing awareness and understanding of mental health, the steps our citizens can take to protect their mental health, and the need for appropriate and accessible services for all people with mental health conditions.

Proclaimed the 11th of May 2021:

Mayor Robert Duncan
